February 8, 2017

Dear Fellow Member,

Your CLYC Board of Directors had its first meeting this year Monday, February 6th to ensure another successful season. We have started on the 2017 Plan of Action.

There are some painting and general maintenance projects that were discussed and scheduled to be done before the Club House is opened for the season. The club is looking into harvesting some lumber, like we did in 1988. More activities are in the works like an Open House, Movie Night, and Day at the Derby.

We are sad to report that Scott Dowling and family have resigned from CLYC. They were active members and Scott was Directory of Sailing, Club Boats, Safety and Learn to Sail. If you or someone you know are interested in that Directorship, let me know. There are lots of members currently that are willing to help with the duties that are involved. The best Learn to Sail Directors are generally not the best sailors. People skills, organizational skills and delegation are needed. Teachers are only responsible for opening the door, the student must come in and do the work.

Past CLYC member, club treasurer and life long sailor, Steward Barnett Jr. passed away this last January at the age of 97.

Paul Gies turned 90 this January and his family had a reception at Vista Grande for him. Paul was also a life long sailor.

This should be an active and fun filled year for the members at CLYC.

Sincerely,

Fritz Marin
Commodore
